- 2) Some of these outstanding ladies' may have been a member only a few years, but she has been outstanding in her organizational skills and her support of the Fire Department. Whether it has been to raise funds for the Auxiliary, or in braving a sleet filled January night to bring refreshments to the men, or responding to a heat and humidity filled event in July with water when the Fire Department has been called out to a lengthy house fire, we firefighters would like to show our deep appreciation for the love which has been shown to us.
- 3) The candidate of this award may be nominated by a Chief Officer of any member department, by a vote of the Department or by vote of any organized Ladies' Auxiliary.
- 4) It is recognized that the Ladies' Auxiliaries, by virtue of their main reason for being is to support their Fire Department – do not receive the publicity they deserve.
